Subject: 4th Friday Monthly Activity Update

Dear Valued Member,

The L-4 Logo is a conglomerate of symbols. It was designed by David Lee, an Army ROTC cadet, and friend of the company. Congo, named for Major Roy Congleton, is the centerpiece. Congo's helmet symbolizes the warrior ethos that the ancient Greek Spartans lived by. Congo's teeth tightly grip the torch of knowledge ... meaning that P/Rs lead other students by its light. Crossed rifles denote the discipline created by drill and its ceremonies. Etched into the buttstock of each weapon are the dates that represent L-4's original charter (1953) date and its re-charter date (2020). L-4's motto, NO SLACK, is imbedded in the scroll. Its meaning exemplifies that P/Rs are the enforcers of a high standard. As such, they strive to exceed it, always.

PR and 2020 charter member Paul Chung has just graduated. Please join me in congratulating Paul.

As the Congleton—Etheridge Memorial Scholarship Fund continues to build through donations, the association's Scholarship Committee is moving ever forward in its work to manage both the fund and the process of applying for financial assistance. Soon, an electronic application will be added to the website, www.L4AA.org. Our honorary member and webmaster, Judy Ramsey, has joined the committee's efforts. Her goal is to ensure that an electronic scholarship application is accessible from the website by the fall semester.

You can become involved through planned giving, and here's how. Name the Congleton—Etheridge Memorial Scholarship Fund in your will through a bequest provision. You can designate the Congleton—Etheridge Memorial Scholarship Fund as a beneficiary of your retirement plan. You can transfer stock to the Congleton—Etheridge Memorial Scholarship Fund. You can even designate the Congleton—Etheridge Memorial Scholarship Fund as the owner or beneficiary of a life insurance policy. If you have questions about opportunities to donate please contact the undersigned at the telephone number below.

Happy birthday USA! 🇺🇸

Fraternally,
