Dear Alumnus,

Your executive committee is pleased to report that a date for the next biennial reunion is established for planning purposes. Save the date for Saturday, November 19th. A new location has been selected on NC State's Centennial Campus. For those requiring lodging, block rooms are available at a nearby Holiday Inn Express. You can anticipate an invitation to the reunion once all the details have been finalized. November 19, 2016 is the date!

The most current version of our membership roster will be distributed next month. If you have changes in your surface address information or a new telephone number/e-mail address please notify me.

For the historians among us, the Pershing Project may be of interest to you. You can read more about this exciting initiative at the following address. thePershingProject.com
